Deaf Access to Support at Rape Crisis Scotland

Rape Crisis Scotland wants to improve access for deaf and hard of hearing survivors of sexual violence, friends, family and supporters.

Rape Crisis Scotland's helpline offers free and confidential support to anyone aged 13 and over who has experienced any form of sexual violence, no matter when this happened. (For under 13s please contact Childline on 0800 1111 or www.childline.org.uk)

Support is available from trained female support workers to women, men and transgender callers.

We offer initial and crisis emotional support and information.

We can also tell you about, or refer you to, other local supports who can offer longer term support, including the 13 local Rape Crisis Centres around Scotland.

Our information leaflets are available in British Sign Language videos:

- Rape and sexual assault
- ● Child sexual abuse
- ● Police and legal information
- ● Stalking
- ● Drug assisted sexual violence
- ● Information for friends and family

These videos are all available on our website. Free DVDs of the BSL videos and the accompanying leaflets can be ordered from info@rapecrisisscotland.org.uk.
